Cecil-Ronald Newton is one of many people out there who experienced Dr John Hewitt's magical pills that he said would repair damaged nerves and help those with spinal injuries to walk again. As Cecil-Ronald tells it, he was in excruciating pain after a car accident and when he tried to walk, he could not. He had what he believes was a classic case of a severed spinal cord. To be honest, Dr Hewitt's medicines sounded a little bit far fetched but Cecil-Ronald was desperate and so willing to try anything. A few of those pills were powerful compounds and Cecil-Ronald passed out. He woke up and found himself walking and able to stand. The doctor's medicines had done the trick. It was unbelievable. Cecil-Ronald spoke to Dr Hewitt and was so grateful for what had happened, but the doctor told him that the drugs were expensive and too dangerous to be sold over the counter. This incident wouldn't be the last time Cecil-Ronald spoke with Dr Hewitt, but he was told to keep his faith and faith in the Dr. The story about Cecil-Ronald's miraculous recovery, is a heartbreaking one, as he was told by Dr Hewitt that his luck was over and he would most likely have to live the rest of his life in a wheelchair. Cecil-Ronald, an engineer from Finland, was then told that he had more faith than he could imagine. Cecil-Ronald loved his life of being in charge of an engineering firm, so having to live in a wheelchair for the rest of his life wasn't something that he was willing to accept. Cecil-Ronald passed away peacefully in his sleep on October 18, 2017 and his wife Maria decided to start a Facebook group "Rescue Cecil-Ronald" in honour of his memory. Cecil-Ronald's story is the latest in a long line of amazing stories of others who have had miraculous recoveries after taking Dr Hewitt's treatment. Check out the photo below which shows Cecil-Ronald recovering after his accident. About Creating Funnels Creating Funnels allows you to find new leads, leads that are ready to buy, qualified leads, leads that are no longer interested in your product or service, and sales qualified leads at the same time! Isn't that pretty darn cool? (And it is). The beauty of this process is that you, my friend, don't need to stress about having leads. You don't have to figure out how to get more leads. You don't have to figure out how to come up with leads yourself. You don't have to do any of that. Instead of wasting time and energy trying to produce your leads, you can be spending your time doing something that truly matters to you and others. I mean, why would you be spending your time trying to produce sales qualified leads when you could be producing funnels? Creating funnels allows you to look beyond "I don't have any leads" and instead focus on "I don't have any funnels." Think about it this way. If you have no funnels, you have no prospects. Period. If you have no prospects, then you are in the dark as to what you could be doing to work towards producing more sales. If you have no funnels, you don't know how to find new leads, leads that are ready to buy, qualified leads, leads that are no longer interested in your product or service, and sales qualified leads at the same time. Creating funnels helps you solve that problem. Creating funnels is like taking a road trip and looking for things at the side of the road that you can pick up or use. You aren't trying to make the trip longer by picking up the stuff along the way. You are looking for those items that you might be able to use while you are on the trip. So, you will stop and use them at the time they are most useful to you. This is precisely how I have used it to solve the aforementioned problem. If you have no leads, you need to look for leads. If you have
