Xenoblade Chronicles came out in 2012, and it gained tremendous praise for its intricate graphics, story, and unique gameplay. Fans have asked for more games from the studio after the release of Xenoblade Chronicles 2 last year. We at Monstars Inc., the company behind Xenoblade Chronicles, are aware of the request and are also excited to announce a sequel to the original Xenoblade Chronicles. We call the sequel Xenoblade Chronicles: Definitive Edition, with several new features and improvements, and are delivering it soon. We ask for your support. Thank you.

Despite a new report that the U.S. and Israeli governments are considering releasing Palestinian prisoners, the regional response has been mixed. There are some hopeful signs. The Arab League welcomed an announcement by Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas to renew peace talks with Israel next month. The Arab Group in the United Nations Security Council also called on the two sides to resume negotiations and give free and transparent elections for the Palestinian Authority next month. The United States, meanwhile, has increased pressure on Israel to release prisoners. Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton's visit to Israel, the Palestinians and Europe over the past few weeks has been directed at garnering international support for the peace talks. In addition, an opinion poll in Israel shows that a majority of Israelis support some kind of settlement with the Palestinians. The New York Times released a report this week saying that the Obama administration and Israel are close to agreeing on releasing some of the more than 1,000 long-serving Palestinian prisoners serving time in Israeli prisons. Under this plan, the Palestinian Authority would agree to recognize Israel as a Jewish state. It would also support Israel's peace efforts, renounce violence, and commit to recognizing Israel's right to exist. Meanwhile, The Jerusalem Post reports that the Obama administration considers moving the U.S. Embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, a move that Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu indicated he did not support. Several key international leaders are signaling they back a wider settlement, with Britain's David Cameron seemingly the most favorable: "I think there's no doubt that the people of Israel have a legitimate claim to the land of Israel. You cannot deny that." And Russia's Vladimir Putin said, "Today, the entire world stands with Israel ... We believe it is absolutely vital to

↑ It is a fantasy action RPG based on a totally new system that is different from the previous game. We have aimed to create an action RPG game that includes our own standard action RPG elements and the elements of classic action RPGs by deeply examining both. □The elements of our new action RPG (three lanes, real-time motion, gravity, teleporting, etc.) □Character management, equipment, items, NPC, graphic details, and unique action systems □A fantasy action RPG with an open world and the benefits of a new action RPG □The active part of combat and the development of skills □The story of an adventurous and heroic journey to create a fantasy action RPG ◆The story In order to break a dark prophecy, the Elden Order, a group that has served as a guardian of the Lands Between for generations, has sent a new leader into the battlefield. The protagonist is known as Tarnished, and he is a new character who inherits the deeds of a previous hero who played a role in the recent history of the Lands Between. In pursuit of this man, Irukumi the Gray Knight is also entering the field. Along with the Elf of the Frog Nebula, a powerful ally on the battlefield, they are embarking on an adventure to conquer the Land of Fortune. -- Your partner - The protagonist, Tarnished, is a new character that inherits the deeds of a previous character from the history of the Lands Between. It is your partner on the adventure, and the partner you can send into combat with the "Team-style Action". Your partner will accompany you and participate in battle. The more times you send your partner into battle, the more powerful your partner becomes. Your partner will gain more Battle Experience in addition to leading you to a higher level. After reaching the "Party level" in battle, your partner will leave the battlefield and the party's management becomes an entirely solo battle. In addition, you can freely send your partner into battle with the "Battle Viewing" function at any time. Your partner will gradually grow stronger by fighting alongside you. Your partner can also be used as a "Skill Deck". The degree of progress of skills in your partner can be transferred onto your character to level up. Furthermore, you can also prepare your partner in the garden with a "
