MyCar-Monitor Download With Full Crack is a new and useful automated fleet management software that allows you to control a fleet of cars remotely. This software has the amazing features of fleet management, vehicle management. MyCar-Monitor Key Features: 1. Vehicle The Vehicle You can simply create a vehicle to keep track of a fleet of cars. Based on the vehicle type you select, MyCar-Monitor will create all the data about that vehicle, including its diagnostic record, history, service details, as well as maintenance reminders. Maintenance reminders are also sent using the email you specify so you can monitor the vehicles' maintenance over a distance. 2. Service The Service MyCar-Monitor enables you to track the service records of the vehicles that need service. It will also keep a detailed record on when that service was done and how that was done, including the technician that did it and his name, the vehicle that was serviced, and many other details. 3. Registration The Registration If you own a large fleet of vehicles, you need to monitor them. So, you need to keep track of their registration details. In addition, MyCar-Monitor provides you with the registration and printing record function, whereby you can save the registration papers and print it in a few steps. The images you save are printed with proper resolution and will not lose any of their quality. 4. Driver The Driver For a large fleet of vehicles, you need to keep track of their drivers. Here you can keep the driving record as well as the history of the vehicles that the driver has driven. Note: If you use multiple drivers, you can enter their details like their first and last name, email and a password. 5. Collection The Collection You can keep track of the vehicles that are either collected or returned to the shop. You can also see the details of each vehicle separately. MyCar-Monitor allows you to create a fleet of vehicles and print the collection and return papers, or get them printed once they are collected or returned. Customers who bought this item also bought MyCar-Monitor Key Functions: 1. Success I have had good luck with the GCW Ticket Holders. This is my second order and the products appear to be identical. Once again, I had no problem with the shipping time. These holders are solid and have held up to many errant traffic lights and cranky teenagers. Success Product is excellent but the box needs to be bigger. Very small box with unnecessary black plastic packaging all around. Not happy at all. Satisfaction Guarantee I will be ordering more products in the near future. I appreciate all the helpful information on the website so that I can be assured of great results. Success It was an excellent and easy way to order my products. Success The products were great and exactly what I was looking for. The instructions were very clear and I had no problem navigating the website. Success Products are exactly as described, shipped on time, and the instructions were very clear. Satisfaction Guarantee I have ordered from other sources in the past, and always had problems. I appreciate all the information on this website about products, services, shipping times, the actual product itself, etc. It makes it easy and straightforward to order the products I need. I always receive high quality products and I have had a great experience in every case I have ordered. Success I am new to this site and have not ordered before, but I have always received the products on time and have had no problems. Satisfaction Guarantee I am happy with the services provided by this supplier and have found products that were exactly what I was looking for. Satisfaction Guarantee I like the products
