Players can earn FIFA Points, the new game currency, by completing challenges, weekly challenges and mini challenges. A variety of Ultimate Team items can be earned based on match content such as big game moments, player cards, goal celebrations, World-Class players, FA Cup moments and goalkeeper cards. Fans can also unlock some content by registering to the FIFA Ultimate Team (FUT) Club by using their Epic Account. Players will also be able to use FUT Credits to earn items when linked to an Epic Account. FUT Credits can also be earned via in-game purchases. The player faces the Emotions system, which recognizes how each player is feeling based on on-field actions. Players will also be able to use their on-field emotion to influence the reactions of teammates on the pitch. This will include the power of morale, which allows the player to influence the behavior of the other team. The Arsenal players can be seen in the trailer with each expressing a different emotion. Players can have various difficulty modes (normal, hard and expert). Each mode includes different opponent teams. Additionally, there are 3 skill levels – Beginner, Novice and Pro – which include specific subsets of gameplay. The first and second levels can be played in 5-minute intervals and the third level in 15-minute intervals. Each skill level has a difficulty and speed rating. Difficulty levels range from beginner (circles), novice (squares), pro (triangles), to expert (triangles and squares). Speed rating ranges from slow (diamonds), to normal speed (crosses), to fast (triangles and squares). A new game feature that allows players to play FIFA matches against real opponents (professional player avatars) in training mode. These matches use the same rules as those used for the real opponents in the full game. The number of players on each side can be adjusted. Players can control a selection of motion capture cameras (running, jumping, turning) or cameras placed at different locations on the pitch (indoor and outdoor). It is possible to play via an HDMI connection or via a 2.5G connection. Zhongyi-Avia () is a private joint venture between the state-owned aircraft maker Zhongyuan Aircraft (Group) Co. Ltd. FIFA is one of the biggest and most popular sports franchises in the world, and the flagship for Electronic Arts' FIFA series. It is the standard by which all sports titles are judged. Over the years FIFA has become a deep and engaging sports simulation. In FIFA EA takes the time to realistically simulate the subtleties of the sport. What can we expect from FIFA 22? FIFA 22 offers a thrilling and authentic football experience with refined visuals, dynamic gameplay, and explosive shots. FIFA 20 features Dynamic Resting Player Zones (Real Teams, Real Passers and Players) and the hugely anticipated Local Creations which now allow players to create completely original footballing worlds complete with players, stadia and managers to represent both teams. FIFA 22 also includes a new My Player feature with the deepest and most authentic player creation tools ever offered in an EA Sports game. Storyline In FIFA 22, the game is set in the key story events of a single football season, from pre-season training camps through to the climactic final in which teams from around the world battle for their place in the FIFA World Cup™ Finals. The story unfolds as teams from the nine confederations face off to gain their ticket to the FIFA World Cup finals. Taking on the roles of these teams' young heroes and stars, players will face real challenges, both on and off the pitch. Dynamic Resting Player Zones and Local Creations EA SPORTS' FIFA franchise has re-invented how players experience the game. New to FIFA 22 are Dynamic Resting Player Zones (Real Teams, Real Passers and Players) and the hugely anticipated Local Creations which now allow players to create completely original footballing worlds complete with players, stadia and managers to represent both teams. In addition to the previously-announced Real Teams and Real Passers, dynamic resting players and teams also mean the ability to play the game from pre-season training through to the climax of the season. Dynamic Resting Player Zones (Real Teams, Real Passers and Players) allow players to experience the authentic feeling of playing a match in real time with the game's most-beloved real football stars. Dynamic Resting Player Zones are a series of key real-world events that impact player movements and create unique playing conditions within the game, or affect opponent players by creating extreme real-world scenarios for defenders to deal with.
