Po and the F urious Five are back in a hilarious and critically acclaimed hit film that your whole family will love. During their last release, Five Fingers Down, there were a lot of things that seemed to be in motion, all of which led to the film. Last year we saw five thumbs down in at least four films, and also with three different characters. However, when everything has been completed, there is still a lot of room for developments. It's still unclear how they're going to split Six Fingers Down into two separate films, but they're going to do it.
