
Emergency 4 Riverside Mod

this emergency 4 is the same as the emergency 4 +1 riverside, but with a few changes. we've done this to make the emergency 4 a bit more emergency. we've made the emergency 4 slightly harder to get, and made it one of the emergency options. it's the fourth option. the emergency 4 riverside mod is a beautifully crafted and well-equipped ultra-lightweight, extremely fast and easy to use solution that lets you practice the crossbow from a low shooting position. it features a fully ambidextrous design and versatile side-mounted accessory rails. the compact, intuitive and durable design, with its unique ergonomic curved grip and leg brace, lets you shoot more shots in less time, which is one of the key features of the emergency 4. the emergency 4 is available with an optional bipod, as well as with the ra-4 stabilizer. the emergency 4 comes with a 50+1 drum magazine and a 100-yard spool (where applicable) and includes a 10-yard spool and a 30-yard spool. the emergency 4 also offers a unique roller release, which lets you quickly chamber the arrow and shoot. the emergency 4 is completely ambidextrous with a silent bolt action, but has a unique ergonomic curved grip that lets you comfortably hold the bow with your non-dominant hand. the dual recoil pad (which can be replaced with a recoil pad from the emergency 7) allows you to place the front pad at the first two fingers and your thumb and back pad at the base of your fingers and your thumb. this puts you in a low shooting position that lets you comfortably hold the bow. the dual thumb loops on the grip give you a secure hold and let you easily release the string. the central leg brace keeps your forearm stable and helps you to stay balanced when shooting.
